Psalm 25: 1- 15

1 In you, LORD my God, I put my trust.

2 I trust in you; do not let me be put to shame, nor let my enemies triumph over me.

3 No one who hopes in you will ever be put to shame, but shame will come on those who are treacherous without cause.

4 Show me your ways, LORD, teach me your paths.

5 Guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my Savior, and my hope is in you all day long.

6 Remember, LORD, your great mercy and love, for they are from of old.

7 Do not remember the sins of my youth and my rebellious ways; according to your love remember me, for you, LORD, are good.

8 Good and upright is the LORD; therefore he instructs sinners in his ways.

9 He guides the humble in what is right and teaches them his way.

10 All the ways of the LORD are loving and faithful toward those who keep the demands of his covenant.

11 For the sake of your name, LORD, forgive my iniquity, though it is great.

12 Who, then, are those who fear the LORD? He will instruct them in the ways they should choose.

13 They will spend their days in prosperity, and their descendants will inherit the land.

14 The LORD confides in those who fear him; he makes his covenant known to them.

15 My eyes are ever on the LORD, for only he will release my feet from the snare.

A – (v10) All the paths of the Lord are steadfast

B – (v6) Be Mindful of your mercy

C – (v10) his Covenant

D – (v2) Do not let me be put to shame

I have set my rainbow
in the clouds, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me
and the earth.
(Genesis 9:13)

Such a timely reminder of the promise of our Maker. May we look to Him in such troubling times and find hope and peace. He will surely watch our coming and going. 💪💪

Methodism's emphasis on both "works of piety" and "works of mercy" as the essential marks of a faithful Christian disciple is true to Scripture and the way God created us to love God by loving our neighbor.
