Matthew 6:25-33 (NIV 1984)

from the pastor's heart

FROM EMPTY TOMB TO FULL HEARTS

Easter Sunday is the most awe inspiring event in the history of mankind. We hear the story of the risen Christ and stand amazed at God's power over sin and death as he raised Jesus from the dead, but what happens on Monday? The songs fade, routines return, and quietly, the wonder slips. The tomb is still empty—but are our hearts still full?

Church, Scripture tells us that Jesus didn't merely escape death - He conquered it. 'But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ' (1 Corinthians 15:57 NIV). Yet could we be living like we are still being held captive by satan?

Recall that the women came expecting a corpse; instead, they encountered a living Christ. And sometimes, we do the same. We approach Jesus with familiarity, and familiarity dulls what should dazzle. We know the story so well that we stop standing in awe. But if Christ is risen, then our lives must rise too. Colossians 3:2 tells us to set our hearts and minds on things above. Resurrection is not just an event to remember- it is a reality to reorder our lives around. With the spiritual victory that Jesus has secured for us, believers ought to live victorious lives.

So here is the invitation this week: let us truly live the victorious life awarded to us. Adore Jesus Christ daily. Make it a point to study His Word regularly. Voice your thanksgiving always - we are Kum Yanites, remember?!

Pray continually. Engage in witness, share your testimonies and the good news of Jesus Christ. Identify what is distracting your heart and rid yourself of those distractions. In the power of the Holy Spirit, overcome your obstacles. In Christ, stay on the narrow path of righteousness, persistently doing right in the sight of God.

Brothers and sisters in Christ, don't let Easter become a memory. Let it become your motivation. This week, don't just say, 'He is risen.' Live like He is reigning. Return to your first wonder and let your heart be full again. God bless you all!

WITH LOVE, PS SIMON

PASTORS & STAFF ON LEAVE / AWAY

Rev Stefanie Oh and Rev Joseph Chen are in JB where they were attending the Methodist Church in Singapore (MCS) Pastors' Retreat from 8 - 10 April and are now at the Chinese Annual Conference (CAC) Pastors' Retreat from 10 - 12 April. Let us continue to pray for our Conference pastors as they return from back to back retreats later today.

Dear KY family, we are about to start a renovation project to rejuvenate our outdoor areas on L5, L6 and L7. Our waterproofing works has lasted us for much longer than the expected 5-7 year period, and it is now time to do a major rejuvenation work especially as we see the increased usage of these areas over the past few months.

Here is a summary of the scope of the renovation works:

- Replace waterproofing membranes and refurbish flooring of L5, L6 and L7 outdoor areas
- Repair water seepage points throughout the building and improve drainage and grating covers
- Repainting of external & internal walls
- Replace glass facade sealants and refurbish casement windows

The expected impact on our church activities is as follows:

- Expected Period: 1 May to 31 October
- Hacking works is likely to take place in the first 2-3 weeks
- Weekend activities to continue as usual including Sunday worship
- Internal meetings / activities can continue but expect noise disturbances during office hours
- Use of L7 Basketball Court & L6 Balcony is suspended for whole period.
- External bookings have been halted

As we commence this necessary project, I invite you to partner in prayer.

- Praise God for contractors honouring their tender quotations even after the war in the Middle East broke out
- Pray for smooth and uneventful renovations
- Pray for safety for workers, KY staff and all who come into our premises
- May God continue to bless Kum Yan to be a blessing!

Running the Race Rightly

Recent shifts and global events have shown that it can no longer be church as usual. Through the upheavals and uncertainties, God has been speaking. But are His people listening? Are we responding, or will we continue as before? Distracted. Busy. Aimless.

The Awakened Aligned Assigned (AAA) Seminar calls believers into an Archippus Awakening – a prophetic moment of clarity, urgency, and purpose. This is the season where God is stirring individuals who recognise themselves as the Archippus of Colossians 4:17 – “Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord that you may fulfil it.” Not merely doing many things for God. But knowing what God is asking them to do.

This one-day seminar will awaken you to what the Spirit is saying through His servant Henson Lim, challenge your priorities, and prepare you for alignment with His kingdom agenda. To live a life with kingdom purpose. Knowing and fulfilling your God-given kingdom assignments.
