Mr Jason Wong - Leading Influence for Change

KEYNOTE introduces Prisons' new DD/COS and finds out more about his vision and thinking for the Service

It was a privilege to come up close and personal with Mr Jason Wong, our new Deputy Director/Chief of Staff (DD/COS). He was formerly the Assistant Director (Operations) in the Singapore Prison Service (SPS) before he was seconded to be the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Singapore Corporation of Rehabilitation Enterprises (SCORE) in 2001.

The Housing Unit Management System, which has proven to be an effective and efficient way of managing inmates, was his brainchild and he's also the main driving force behind the highly acclaimed Yellow Ribbon Project, first launched in 2004.

ON LEADERSHIP

For Mr Wong, leadership does not necessarily come from the position of authority. It also comes from the ability of the individual to influence the people around him.

"Leadership is more than just power of a position. It is also about influence. I can instruct you to carry out duties, but if I can influence you, you would do so willingly on your own initiative. It is not just for me in my position to influence you; you can 'lead' me too.

Before we can lead others, we have to lead ourselves. We need to be guided by values and principles, which make up our character. We must also have a strong sense of what we

a pre-believer to Christ if you are given 10 years to do so?

Pass It On

It Only Takes A Spark

by Kurt Kaiser (1969)

It only takes a spark,
to get a fire going
And soon all those around,
can warm up in its glowing

That's how it is with God's love
Once you've experienced it
You spread his love to everyone;
You want to pass it on

“A member came to me after service. She said that during worship, she saw a vision of a hand moving across a field of wheat – touching every head of wheat. She did not understand much till you shared the word and it all made sense. Like to let you know so that you can be encouraged too!”

GOLDEN HARVEST

Farmers in Pingyi county in China's Shandong province are seen drying harvested corn on Monday in this drone picture. According to the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Affairs, the country's grain output this year will set a new record by exceeding 1.3 trillion catties (650 billion kg) for the seventh consecutive year. With 80 per cent of the autumn harvest completed, it says that recent spells of prolonged rain will have a limited impact on output.
