

An aerial photograph of a winding asphalt road that curves through a dense, green forest. The road is light-colored and contrasts with the dark green trees. The forest appears to be on a hillside, with the road following the contours of the land. The overall scene is peaceful and scenic.

“All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.”

- 2 Corinthians 5:18-20 (ESV)

Likewise, wives, be subject to your own husbands, so that even if some do not obey the word, they may be won without a word by the conduct of their wives, when they see your respectful and pure conduct.

Do not let your adorning be external—the braiding of hair and the putting on of gold jewelry, or the clothing you wear— but let your adorning be the hidden person of the heart with the imperishable beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which in God’s sight is very precious.

1 Peter 3: 1-3 (ESV)

Gain wisdom. Live faithfully. Act courageously.

The Gospel isn't a formula you apply to your life; it's the Story you're meant to inhabit. Take a deep dive into Christian worldview and become the kind of believer who understands how creation, fall, redemption, and restoration all go together to form the only true Story of the world. And then live it here and now.

Discussion Questions

1. What is one word that describes your relationship with your mother? Why did you choose that word?
2. What are some things you learn about yourself in your relationship with your mother?
3. How are you an ambassador of Christ in your family, work, church & community?
